

Self Identification of Demographics

Passager exists to give voice to an older – and often overlooked – population. We want to ensure all writers ages 50 to 100+ are given the opportunity to be heard.

We hope you'll take the brief survey below and share your demographic information with Passager. This data will only be used to help us understand who is submitting work to us. Understanding will help us to broaden our outreach. We value diversity and want everyone to have a place at Passager's table.

The survey will remain completely anonymous. Your names and contact information will be removed. Participation is voluntary but we would be grateful if you'd take a minute. Your responses have NO influence over publication.
